

The Westin Pune dominates its riverside location with the guestrooms and form taking advantage of the views. The building is composed of two main elements, hotel and serviced apartments, each with its own entry. The elevated form separates guest and public spaces with the banqueting accessed from the lower level. Outdoor terraces for restaurants and suites afford riverfront views.

Andy Fisher workshop